

Conjunctions

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunction. (Use: and, but, because, so, or)

- I wanted to go to the park, ___ it started raining.
- She studies hard every day ___ she wants to pass the exam.
- He was tired, ___ he went to bed early.
- I enjoy swimming ___ hiking during the summer.
- You can have cake ___ ice cream for dessert.
- She was late to class, ___ she missed the bus.
- Would you like coffee ___ tea with your breakfast?
- He failed the test ___ he didn't study.
- We can go to the park now, ___ wait until later.
- They asked him to stay, ___ he didn't want to.

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunction. (Use: until, although, while, because, since, if, unless, when) to complete each sentence:

- I will wait here ___ you come back.
- ___ she was tired, she still finished her homework.
- He can't go outside ___ he finishes his chores.
- She studied very hard ___ she wanted to pass her exams.
- You can watch TV ___ you finish your dinner.
- ___ it was raining, we decided to stay inside.
- I will call you ___ I arrive at the airport.
- You won't pass the exam ___ you study hard.
- ___ I was cooking, my brother was cleaning the kitchen.
- We can't leave ___ everyone is ready.
- I will give you the money ___ you need it.
- We can't start the meeting ___ everyone arrives.
- ___ she was nervous, she gave a great speech.
- The kids played outside ___ their parents cooked dinner.
- You should call me ___ you are on your way.

Answer Key

Exercise 1: Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunction. (Use: and, but, because, so, or)

- I wanted to go to the park, but it started raining.
- She studies hard every day because she wants to pass the exam.
- He was tired, so he went to bed early.
- I enjoy swimming and hiking during the summer.
- You can have cake or ice cream for dessert.
- She was late to class, so she missed the bus.
- Would you like coffee or tea with your breakfast?
- He failed the test because he didn't study.
- We can go to the park now, or wait until later.
- They asked him to stay, but he didn't want to.

Exercise 2: Fill in the blanks with the correct conjunction. (Use: until, although, while, because, if, unless, when) to complete each sentence:

- I will wait here until you come back.
- Although she was tired, she still finished her homework.
- He can't go outside unless he finishes his chores.
- She studied very hard because she wanted to pass her exams.
- You can watch TV if you finish your dinner.
- Although it was raining, we decided to stay inside.
- I will call you when I arrive at the airport.
- You won't pass the exam unless you study hard.
- While I was cooking, my brother was cleaning the kitchen.
- We can't leave until everyone is ready.
- I will give you the money when you need it.
- We can't start the meeting until everyone arrives.
- Although she was nervous, she gave a great speech.
- The kids played outside while their parents cooked dinner.
- You should call me when you are on your way.