

Future Tense

Match each sentence to the correct type of future: will, going to, or present continuous.

Also, match the uses with their example:

- a) Future decision made at the moment
- b) Future plan or intention
- c) Future arranged event

- I _____ (help) you with your homework.
- She _____ (study) medicine.
- They _____ (meet) us at the restaurant at 7 pm.

Complete each sentence using the appropriate future form: will, going to, or present continuous.

Options: will, going to, am/is/are + verb+ing

- They _____ (have) a baby! They just found out.
- She thinks she _____ (pass) the exam because she studied really hard.
- We _____ (move) to a new apartment next month; we signed the lease yesterday.
- She _____ (start) a new job next week; she is so excited.
- I _____ (buy) a new phone soon; I've saved enough money.
- They _____ (have) a big party next Saturday. They have already sent out the invitations.

Unscramble the words to make correct future tense sentences.

- is / going / to / bake / cake / she / a / tomorrow
- we / will / win / think / I / match / the
- visit / they / are / grandparents / their / to / next / week / going
- buy / car / will / I / new / next / month / a
- meet / at / you / will / 6 pm / I

Select the correct future tense form (will or going to) to complete each sentence.

- She (will / is going to) visit her grandmother next week.
- They (will / are going to) have a party this Saturday.
- I think it (will / is going to) rain tomorrow.
- We (will / are going to) buy a new car on Monday.
- She (will / is going to) be a doctor when she grows up.

ANSWER KEY

Match each sentence to the correct type of future: will, going to, or present continuous.

Also, match the uses with their example:

- I will help you with your homework.
a) Future decision made at the moment
- She is going to study medicine.
b) Future plan or intention
- They are meeting us at the restaurant at 7 pm.
c) Future arranged event

Complete each sentence using the appropriate future form: will, going to, or present continuous.

Options: will, going to, am/is/are + verb+ing

- They are going to have a baby! They just found out.
- She thinks she will pass the exam because she studied really hard.
- We are moving to a new apartment next month; we signed the lease yesterday.
- She is starting a new job next week; she is so excited.
- I am going to buy a new phone soon; I've saved enough money.
- They are having a big party next Saturday. They have already sent out the invitations.

Unscramble the words to make correct future tense sentences.

- is / going / to / bake / cake / she / a / tomorrow
She is going to bake a cake tomorrow.
- we / will / win / think / I / match / the
I think we will win the match.
- visit / they / are / grandparents / their / to / next / week / going
They are going to visit their grandparents next week.
- buy / car / will / I / new / next / month / a
I will buy a new car next month.
- meet / at / you / will / 6 pm / I
I will meet you at 6 pm.

Select the correct future tense form (will or going to) to complete each sentence.

- She (will / is going to) visit her grandmother next week.
- They (will / are going to) have a party this Saturday.
- I think it (will / is going to) rain tomorrow.
- We (will / are going to) buy a new car on Monday.
- She (will / is going to) be a doctor when she grows up.